

Have you recently been diagnosed with breast cancer or are you a breast cancer survivor? Do you have questions that only someone who has been diagnosed or who has a personal experience with breast cancer may be able to answer? Do you just need to talk to someone who has been there? Do you want to hear from others who understand your journey?

If you responded yes to any of these questions please join Susan G. Komen Nevada's Survivor Forum on Wednesday, October 21, 2020 from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. for an "Intimate Conversation About Breast Cancer". This interactive Zoom event will focus on personal experiences and individual journeys. It's a chance to ask questions of other survivors and offer tips and solutions that helped you, and may help someone else. This forum is not intended to discuss medical diagnosis or treatment options. We'll leave that to the medical professionals.

On Wednesday, October 21 from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. come with your stories. An open heart and an open mind. There is no cost, however space is limited to 20 participants who will be chosen on a first come-first served basis. Please register today by emailing Marietta English or Dawn Creech at marketing@Komennevada.org. (Zoom link will be sent along with your participation confirmation).
